

A CORDIAL INTERVIEW WITH HUERTA

Representative of President Wilson Meets Mexican Executive at the Latter's Suggestion

NO ULTIMATUM ISSUED TO THE UNITED STATES

President Huerta Authorizes Denial of the Report to That Effect—Huerta's Reply to American Proposal of Media tion Contains 7,000 Words—Lind Sends Summary of 1,000 Words to Secretary Bryan—Senate Debate Stopped

Washington, Aug. 19.—Hopeful though somewhat puzzled by today's developments, administration officials anxiously awaited tonight the receipt of the reply from the Mexican government. The reply to the communication presented by John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico, was given to members of the senate committee on foreign relations, republican as well as democrats, and had the effect of removing the question of the Mexican question following sensational reports of a threatened severance of relations with the Huerta government.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan had received during the past 24 hours:

A summary from Mr. Lind giving briefly the Huerta government's rejection of the American proposal.

about 1,000 men, of whom the Washington, Aug. 19.

Although both the state department

No Ultimatum from Huerta.

A denial from Charge O'Shaughnessy, authorized by President Huerta, declaring that there was no truth in the report of an ultimatum demanding

| | |
|--|---|
| TO INVESTIGATE THE BALKAN CONDITIONS | DEATH DUE TO HER WET BATHING SUIT |
| President Butler Outlines Plans of International Commission. | Water Formed Circuit and Miss Wesley Is Thrown Upon Third Rail. |

"The Carnegie endowment fund for international peace, through the division of Intercourse and Education of which I am chairman," said Dr. Butler, "is sending a special committee of inquiry to the Balkan peninsula to make a personal investigation and report for the information of the public

"Second—The truth or falsity of outrages reported to have been committed by the combatants, particularly the mutilation of captives, outrages on women and destruction of private property.

The selections will be made by Baron D'Estournelles D'Constant, a member of the French senate and chairman of the Carnegie endowment administration in France.

GYPSIES' CAPTIVE 17 YEARS, RESTORED TO HIS PARENTS.

Watertown, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Word reached here yesterday that Frederick Brosseau, aged 24, who was kidnapped by gypsies nearly 17 years ago, had been restored to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brosseau, of Sissonville, St. Lawrence county.

On Oct. 14 1896, when only 7 years old, young Brousseau left home to meet his father at the edge of the village. That was the last seen of the boy in Sissonville.

The presence of the wanderer was reported by the monks to the Montreal police and an aunt of the young man recognized his picture in a newspaper. The parents were notified and went to Montreal, where they positively identified Brosseau by a birthmark. He is being detained by the police as a witness against some of the gypsies who

TO SIGN CONTRACT

Member of Furniture Firm Takes Case to Supreme Court.

Boston, Aug. 19.—An order to com-court today by Hugh McLean of that city. McLean is a member of a firm with whom the school board made the contract. Judge Hammond issued an order of notice returnable Friday.

A resolution providing for the purchase of the furniture was passed over

Governor Baldwin of Connecticut will be one of the speakers.

Lower Rates on Hard Coal.
Washington, Aug. 19.—Lower rates on anthracite from the Pennsylvania

Mrs. Mary A. Redfield.
Pittsfield, Mass., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Mary A. Redfield, mother of the secretary of commerce, W. C. Redfield, died at her home here today. She was 65 years of age and for the past